Things to bring:

- Balance of your camp fee
- Your own Bible (very important!)
- Pen
- Cash (no more than $20 for snack shack**)
- A reusable water bottle
- Sleeping bag & pillow
- One piece MODEST swim suit or dark t-shirt/shorts
- Towel
- Tennis shoes for games
- Camping chair
- Personal items
- Insect repellent
- Sweatshirt or light jacket
- Layers – we eat out in the tent and it might be chilly
- Nice casual wear for clubs and church (no holes)
- 5 days worth of modest clothing
- A great attitude and willingness to learn!

Things NOT to bring:

- No cell phones or electronic devices (if brought they will be held for you until the end of camp)
- Immodest clothing*
- Clothing with holes
- Body piercings. Please remove any with the exception of girl's earrings or small nose studs
- Please cover any tattoos

You will be an example to both your peers and to the children in the clubs you will be doing.

*Dress code: Our dress code is aimed at making camp as distraction-free as possible. With that in mind, we ask everyone to abide by our current policy: We understand that within the Christian faith there are many opinions on appropriate styles and behaviors and we do not want to be legalistic. We also do not want to offend others or cause CEF young people to focus on behaviors their parents would not agree with. No immodest clothing - no midriff showing, no short shorts (should reach fingertips when arms are hanging), no holes in clothing, no low necklines (cleavage showing), or bra straps showing. There are many variations of skinny pants (spandex, leggings, yoga pants, jeggings). Our concern is that our students dress modestly by covering their bum. Over leggings, a top or skirt must reach mid-thigh. All students should dress neatly in clothes that are not ripped or ragged.

**Money at camp: We suggest no more than $20 for snack shack. All cash above $20 will be collected and held until the end of camp. If camp fees are not paid any cash above the $20 for snack shack will be applied towards the student's balance.
