Dear CYIA Students and Parents,

We are so excited about CYIA DAY CAMP and we are thrilled you are planning to join us for this exciting time of training and preparation for ministry. The following is some of the daily items they will need to bring plus some fun details about what is new for parents this year.

This year our CYIA will be unique in that all the students will be able to go home each evening and share with their parents what they have learned. Parents, family members, and your church leadership are highly encouraged to join us for each evening for dinner and stay for our inspiring worship and Chapel service.

Things Students need to bring:

- Daily sack lunch and personal snacks (dinner is provided by volunteer parents)
- Balance of your Camp fee
- Your own BIBLE (very important!)
- Pens / pencils
- Enclosed toe shoes for games
- Insect repellent
- Sweatshirt or light jacket for outside games
- Good Attitude (highly recommended)

Things Students do NOT need to bring:

- No immodest clothing
 - No midriff showing
 - No short shorts
 - No holes in clothing
 - No low neckline
 - No spandex pants
- No body piercing. Please remove any piercings with the exception of girls ears or small nose studs.
- Please cover any tattoos
- Reading materials other than CYIA teaching materials and your Bible
- Cell phone will be allowed on Campus but they will be held in a separate room and only accessed during lunch, dinner and after daily dismissal.
